Dear Parents/Carers of children in Years 2 to 4,

Some of the feedback that I have received from parents since joining Himbleton has been regarding the provision of peripatetic music lessons.

This week I met with providers to discuss possible options to enhance our offer.

For children in Years 2-4, there is a possibility that we may be able to offer violin lessons during school time. These lessons would take place on a weekly basis, with each session lasting 20 minutes. The sessions would be delivered in small groups of 2 or 3. For a group of 3, the cost would be £4.50 each per week. For a group of 2, the cost would be £6.75 each per week. Children are asked to commit to the sessions for a term and payment would be taken at the beginning of each half term. In addition, the option of hiring the instrument for a term is offered at a cost of £32 per term, if children do not have their own. This would only be viable moving forward if we were able to fill a full hour i.e. 3 x 20 minute sessions, so a minimum of 6 children.

In addition, there is a possibility that we may be able to offer weekly 1-1 piano lessons after school, at a cost of £8.35 for 20 minutes.

We understand that the cost for this possible provision is significant, so before making any final decisions we would like to know whether or not you would be interested in either of these options. Please could you complete the attached slip and return it on Friday via mail bags?

Thank you in anticipation.

Kind regards,

Gemma Martin
